ITALIAN DINING ANYWHERE

Forty years after Pietro and Amalia Murdaca opened this family-style restaurant in 1957 to give their loved ones a place to enjoy "the traditional recipes of their native Italy," husband and wife team Annette and Jim followed in their footsteps. In 2015, son Pietro followed in the footsteps of his father and grandfather before him. At this time-honored favorite in Lodi, Jim still cooks in the restaurant's kitchen, just like Pietro once did, with his son at his side, serving up homemade raviolis, sauces and desserts from family recipes passed down through generations.

The Genovese ravioli with Calabrese sauce is a Pietro's favorite, with dishes still served Italian family-style and meant to be enjoyed by the entire table. Experience a delicious dinner with family or friends in a warm and inviting atmosphere of Old World Italian charm at Pietro's Trattoria in Lodi, or from the comfort of your own home.

SINCERELY,
Jim, Annette, and Chef Pietro Murdaca

PRIVATE DINING
